We invite all trainers of EATA and ITAA to the International Trainers Day
4th of July 2023, North Dublin

CHALLENGES – CHANGES - CHANCES OF TA TRAINING IN UNCERTAIN TIMES

The last years were dominated by the climate crises, the pandemic and an ongoing war in Europe. These drastic events have accelerated a development that had already begun earlier: the digital revolution, which massively influences and changes both our professional and our social everyday life.

On this international trainer's day, we will together explore these influences on our training culture and the TA culture in general. We will discuss how we can best integrate these developments.

We invite to take this day as a possibility to reconnect with professional and personal relationships and to engage in theoretical and practical constructive exchange. The purpose is to enhance discussions related to training and professional development.

We're looking forward to gathering with you there.
